Wedneſday, June 2. 1708.

From the Leid. Gaz. and Amſt. Cour. dated June 8.

Barcelona, May 4.

THE 30th of laſt Month arriv'd here in 9 Days from Genoa an Engliſh Man of War, and landed General Count Guido Staremberg and Major General Belcaſtel, who immediately waited on King Charles and were receiv'd with all Marks of Favour. Count Staremberg is on his Departure from hence, to take on him the Command in chief of the Army of the Allies which is drawing together in the Neighbourhood of Tarragona. By a Veſſel arriv'd in 9 Days from Genoa, we have receiv'd an Account of the ill Succeſs of the Enemy's Enterprize againſt Scotland: Whereupon his Catholick Majeſty has caus'd Te Deum to be Sung in our Cathedral. Gironne, Tortoſa, Tarragona, and other Places are well provided with all Neceſſaries for a long Defence: and the Fortifications of this City are ſtrengthned by ſome new Works. Great Preparations are made here for the Reception of the Queen of Spain. We are in very little Apprehenſion of what the Enemy may Attempt.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated June 7.

Turin, May 19. We have Advice here, that the Count de Noyelles General of the Dutch Forces in Catalonia, died the 11th Inſtant. And that the firſt Night Count Staremberg ſlept in Barcelona, he perceiv'd ſoon after he lay down, ſomebody feeling about his Bed for his Cloaths, whereupon he call'd out and leaping from the Bed ran to his Sword. His Servant hearing the Noiſe, ruſh'd into the Chamber with his Sword drawn, and not diſtinguiſhing his Maſter in the Dark, had like to have run him through; but the Count putting by the Thruſt with his Hand had only his Fingers cut. The Man that the Count had perceiv'd about his Bed, was immediately Seiz'd; and proves to be a Native of Rouſſillon who came from that Province but 5 Days before, and was a Dependant on a Creature of the Court of France: Wherefore he muſt paſs through a ſevere Examination, to diſcover whether he got into the Chamber to ſteal, to convey away ſome Papers, or to murther the Count.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated June 5.

Vienna, May 19. One of Prince Ragotski's moſt truſted Pages, being ſent by him with Letters to Count Berezeni, has brought them to this Court: Thoſe Letters diſcover ſome Deſigns of the Malecontents and the Diſſentions there are among their Chiefs, many of whom incline to Peace. By Count Heiſter's beating up the Quarters of the Malecontents at Ghins, a Congreſs of ſome of their Leaders whom Berezeni had invited thither was diſſipated; and all that were at it had been taken, if a Herdſman had not given them a very ſhort Notice of the Approach of our Party. The laſt Letters from Segedin, tell us they had Advice there that the General who commands in Tranſilvania, having provided for the Security of all the fortified Places of that Principality, was marching with his Troops towards the Maroſch and the Tibiſcus, to meet General Kriechbaum who went lately from hence to command in that Principality in the Room of General Rabutin. We have confirm'd Advice, that the Malecontents in the Irruption they made ſome Days ago into Moravia, were joyn'd by ſeveral Robbers and Aſſaſſins of that Country and Parts adjacent, ſo that they made up a Body of ſeveral thouſand Men; and that among their other Barbarities, they cruelly butcher'd Father Staniſlaus Rapali a Jeſuite of 70 Years old, giving him 23 Wounds: They plunder'd and burnt about 16 Villages and Caſtles, and Maſſacred above 500 Perſons of all Conditions.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated June 5.

Presbourg, May 21. This Day the Aſſembly of the States of the Kingdom, as well the upper as the lower Table, unanimouſly approv'd the Articles of the Remonſtrance of the Grievances of the Hungarian Nation which had been drawn up and preſented to them by the Committee appointed to that End, and order'd them to be engroſs'd: They have now under Debate the Means of Redreſſing thoſe Grievances, and of ſecuring the Rights and Liberties of the Nation for the future. His Imperial Majeſty's Preſence in the Diet is earneſtly deſir'd by the ſaid States. We have Advice, that the Malecontents have begun to hold a Congreſs near Erla, to conſider in what State their Affairs ſtand at preſent; and to govern themſelves according to the Reſolution his Imperial Majeſty ſhall take upon the foreſaid Remonſtrance of the Grievances of the Kingdom. An accidental Fire that broke out in Trenchin, and laſted 3 Days, has conſum'd moſt part of the Buildings of that Town.

Vienna, May 23. 'Tis reported, that the Deputies of the Malecontents who have been aſſembled at Erla from the 15th Inſtant, have ſent ſome Perſons from among themſelves to Dantzick, with a ſecret Commiſſion; and that their Troops have cloſely block'd up Tirnau: 'Tis alſo rumour'd, that they have ſecretly elected either the late Elector of Bavaria, or the Prince of Conti, for their King. General Heiſter gives out, that when he has receiv'd the Sums of Money neceſſary for the Service of this Campaign, and the Daniſh Troops are come from Bavaria, he will undertake to give a good Account of the Malecontents.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated June 9. &c.

Vienna, May 26. The Baron de Virmont is ſet out from hence for Naples: He is to ſtop at Lubiana in lower Auſtria, and receive there the new Levies made by the States of that Province to ſerve in the Kingdom of Naples: Of which Levies, the Horſe are to march by Land; and the Foot are to be imbark'd at Fiume and be tranſported over the Adriatick, together with 1200 Men which the Imperial Commiſſary Count Joſeph Ernеſtus de Lubenek has liſted in the Country about Fiume. The Roman Catholick Clergy of Hungary, have ſent to the Emperour a ſharp Memorial againſt the Proteſtants, with a modeſt Remonſtrance of their own Grievances; in which Memorial they urge, that in Explanation of a Clauſe running in theſe Terms Salvo Jure Dominorum Terreſtrium [with a Saving to the Right of thoſe who have temporal Lordſhips] every Lord ought to exercile in his own Eſtate or Lordſhip full Power in all Matters of Religion; Whereas the Proteſtants deſire that Liberty of Conſcience may be allow'd in all Places. The Cardinal of Saxe-Zeyts is expected here to Day from Presbourg, to confer with the Emperour touching the Grievances of which the States of Hungary in Diet Aſſembled have drawn up a Remonſtrance: Thoſe States believing they can propoſe proper Methods for redreſſing thoſe Grievances and reſtoring the Tranquility of the Kingdom, are extremely deſirous that his Imperial Majeſty would condeſcend to favour them with his gracious Preſence. The Lady of Bezeredi, one of the Leaders of the Malecontents, taken at Ghins by the Party under General Heiſter and kept Priſoner at Presbourg, has offer'd 20000 Florins for her Liberty. General Count Wackerbaert, Envoy of King Auguſtus, being newly return'd from Sileſia, will in a few Days receive in his Maſter's Name the Emperour's Inveſtiture of the Electorate of Saxony. The Prince of Lichtenſtein, his Imperial Majeſty's Commiſſioner at the Diet at Presbourg, is arriv'd here from thence, to give the Court an Account of all that has paſs'd there to this Time. General Heiſter, Count Palfi Ban of Croatia, and General neral Guiklander, are gone to Hungary: And an Expreſs is ſent to Bavaria to haſten the march of the Daniſh Forces from thence hither. 400 Draught Horſes for the Train of Artillery, are paſs'd by this City, coming from Bohemia for Hungary. Letters from Hungary ſay the Malecontents ſolicit a Ceſſation of Arms for 3 Months; but 'tis not likely the Emperour will be amus'd by any vain Propoſition, to forbear the Military Operations in the Summer Seaſon. General Rabutin is arriv'd from Tranſilvania at Peterwaradin, whence he is expected hither. The Malecontents are drawing ſome Troops together near St. Benoit, and threaten to make a ſecond Irruption into Moravia, where they have ravag'd the Country from the Mountains quite to Hongariſch-brod. The Count de Villa-Major, Ambaſſador of Portugal, having receiv'd his Magnificent Coaches from Holland, will within a few Days make his publick Entry. The Emperour has promoted Count Francis Sebaſtian de Thierheim, Lieutenant-Field-Marſhal and Collonel of a Regiment, to the Rank of General of Artillery, in conſideration of his long, faithful, and good military Services, perform'd with Bravery and Vigilance, as well in Hungary againſt the Turks, as in the Empire againſt the French, and of his known Experience in the Art of War. In like Conſideration of the good and meritorious Services, render'd to the Houſe of Auſtria from his Youth, and of the great military Experience acquir'd, by Count Scipio Begni Lieutenant-Field-Marſhal and Collonel of a Regiment, his Imperial Majeſty has been graciouſly pleas'd to promote him alſo to the Rank of General of Artillery.

From the Leinen Gazette, dated June 8.

Francfort, June 3. The Elector of Hanover is Expected to Night at Volbel; and to Morrow his Electoral Highneſs is to be at Hochſt, where the Elector of Mentz is come to meet and confer with him. M. de Vivans is mov'd down from Offenbourg with his Detachment of French Horſe, towards Raſtad: Part of the Enemy's Foot have paſs'd the Rhine at Fort Keol, Capell, and Fort-Louis, to join him in the Neighbourhood of Raſtad; And 'tis reported the Elector of Bavaria will ſpeedily follow them with the reſt of their Army. General Thungen continues with the Imperialiſts between Muhlberg and Daxland, and has caus'd Batteries of Cannon to be rais'd in the Avenues to his Camp.

For the Entertainment of his Excellency Andreas Artemonides Mativeoff Ambaſſador from his Imperial Majeſty the Czar of Muſcovy.
